LEAF PEEPING GUIDE

Follow our tips below for the best places for leaf peeping this fall.

LEAF PEEP...BY CAR:

Blue River Valley

Take a longer drive through the Blue River Valley from Silverthorne to Kremmling, via Hwy 9 and enjoy scenic views along the way.

LEAF PEEP...BY FOOT:

Ptarmigan Trail

To access, take Rainbow Dr. to Tanglewood Ln.

This 6.1 mile (one-way) hike to the summit will reward you with panoramic views of the changing season. Take a break and take in the view at the bench located about half way up the trail.

Angler Mountain Trail

To access, take Hwy 9 north to Bald Eagle Rd.

Take this 2.5 mile (one-way) moderate hike for amazing views of Silverthorne, the Gore Range and the Tenmile Range with an optional connection to the Ptarmigan Trail at the top.

Acorn Creek

This 4 mile (one-way) option, located off Ute Pass, offers hikers solitude and magnificent views of the Gore Range.

Blue River Trail

Open to bikers and walkers, the paved Blue River Trail runs 3.5 miles through town, offering spectacular views and easy access.

LOCAL SUSTENANCE:

Silverthorne is home to a burgeoning restaurant scene. From craft beers to authentic eats, there are always new options to try. Stop by one of the places listed below, or any of the many other restaurants in town, for a dining experience you won't forget.

Check out Bluebird Market, Summit County's only food hall, featuring everything from burgers to harvest bowls to ice cream empanadas and more!

Looking to sample a local brew? For cans to carry out, try Angry James or Syndicate Brewing Co. or, head to Thirsty Pika Taproom to try one of the more than 30 self-pour taps.

For some of the best authentic Mexican options in town, head to Mercado La Perla. While waiting for your order, browse the aisles of the attached grocery store.

Need a caffeine boost before or after your leaf peeping adventure? Stop by Red Buffalo Coffee & Tea or House of Vibes Coffee & Curio for a caffeine fix. Or if breakfast cocktails or happy hour is more your thing, head to Timberline Craft Kitchen & Cocktails.
